Torrance Van Employee at Sales School

E. James Pickett of Torrance Van & Storage, is attending the sixth session of the new Mayflower Institute Sales Training at Indianapolis.

Pickett is among the Mayflower representatives from all parts of the country attending the program. Torrance Van & Storage is the exclusive Torrance agent of Aero Mayflower Transit Co. of Indianapolis.

The sales training school was designed for the purpose of helping Transit Co. agents and their representatives to analyze better the moving and shipping problems of customers.

The program in which Pickett is participating was developed by Bill J. Carroll, director of the Mayflower Institute, and Professor Fred W. Kniffin, Indiana University School of Business. The school is sponsored jointly by the Transit Co. and the Mayflower Warehouseman's Assn., of which Torrance Van & Storage is a member.

Carson Civic Group to Get Traffic Data

Traffic problems and the work of the Los Angeles County Sheriff's Department will be main topics of discussion next Tuesday when members of the Carson Civic Betterment Assn. meets at 7:30 p.m. at the Carson Branch Library, 22102 S. Main St.

A representative of the Sheriff's Department will speak to the group on these matters, according to Earl E. Swanson, president of the CCBA.

Nominations for officers for 1960 also will be received at the meeting, Swanson said. Election of officers will be held at the December meeting.

Supervisor Burton W. Chace is scheduled to install officers at the January meeting.

Girl Scout Troop 406

Girl Scout Troop 406, sponsored by the El Camino Kiwanis Club, had its regular weekly meeting Wednesday afternoon at the home of its leader, Mrs. Reed. The troop welcomed Janie Armstrong and Jeanette Dickerman as new members.

The mothers of the troop met with Mrs. Reed and its co-leader, Mrs. Gosner, at the Gosner home Wednesday evening.

Cake and coffee were served.
